

Sinclair's action represents an abuse of the public airways and an abuse of the "news" process. This action is not in the public interest -- which should be taken into consideration when Sinclair licenses are up for renewal -- and is a violation of campaign finance law as a free commercial for Senator Kerry's opponents.